Three Pirates Earn Daktronics/CoSIDA All-Region Soccer Honors

Posted: Nov 16, 2010

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Three members of the No. 11-ranked Armstrong Atlantic State University women's soccer squad have earned All-Southeast Region honors as selected by Daktronics and CoSIDA, announced Tuesday.

Junior defender Kelli Bahr and sophomore midfielder Morgan Mitchell were each named to the first team, while senior defender Carey Patterson was named to the second team. Bahr and Mitchell will advance to the national ballot and will have a chance to earn Daktronics/CoSIDA All-America honors, to be announced on Dec. 1.

Bahr earns her first All-Region honor after helping the Pirates to a school-record low 0.86 GAA as a central defender. The Middleton, Wisc., native has tallied a goal and two assists this season while also earning All-PBC honors.

Mitchell appears on the Daktronics All-Southeast Region team for a second consecutive season after tallying five goals and three assists this season, including the match-winner in the Pirates' 1-0 win over UNC Pembroke on Sunday in the NCAA Championships. The Lilburn, Ga., native also earned All-PBC honors this season.

Patterson, meanwhile, earns second-team honors after pairing with Bahr to cement the Pirates' defense this season. A native of Panama City Beach, Fla., Patterson was a two-time PBC Defensive Player of the Week honoree this season and has tallied a pair of assists this year while also earning All-PBC honors.

The Pirates are next in action on Friday, November 19, at the NCAA South/Southeast Regional Finals taking on Lenoir-Rhyne at 3:00 p.m. in Tampa, Fla.
